Worn and loved for long

Any shape can be used as starting point for your personal project.. Think about what you like to wear and what you would love to wear.. take your time and let yourself inspired by my ideas, your favorite clothes, the world around you..then book a time with me (we can meet at any time via web to discuss your ideas and desires.. I will then prepare your personal project for your unique dress. I will follow you carefully in choosing the best shape for you, fabric and color. You will be able to follow all the itinere in all the steps from the

..in steps

1. choose a style that you like or start from zero

2. book a time with me(we can meet any time via web..if you decide to go on we book a second appointment

3. second meeting to define style, color, fabric, and take measurements. The final price is decided and paid In case you don t start from a style I propose you, we might will need to meet few more times and maybe a toile will needed to be sewn (delivery time can change)

4. I will keep you updated with the process ..so you will always be an active part of the entire process.
